Nancy suggested we send drafts of the rules to Danielle as a heads up. I assume that also means no OMB review. I've been asked whether we'll get these two rules to OP this week. Will that be possible?

Hi Tanya,

I'm sorry I missed you! We need to get a final version of the labeling rule from OPPT first before we could offer up a timeframe for OMB, but I don't imagine it would take too long for us to pull that and the compliance date package together. That said, it will be helpful to clarify the expectation for sharing with OMB (e.g., is this just a heads up with no review?).

Peter,

I just returned from the briefing with Ryan Jackson on the Formaldehyde Direct Final Rules. Ryan would like to give OMB a heads up about these rules, even if their review is not required. So Nancy has asked how soon we can send the rules to Danielle/OMB. Can you let me know? I believe folks are anxious to get them to the FR for publishing but want to OMB a heads up first. Thanks.

Tanya
